Ticket sales will go to help the SPCA

Published March 25, 2017

A portion of all ticket sales from our summer tour will be donated to the SPCA. We are very excited to partner with this organization as animal welfare is an important issue to us.

Check out your local SPCA website for more information on what they do and how you can get involved. We hope to see you all at one of our stops! Tickets are on sale for all tour locations, but pay attention to our Facebook and Instagram accounts for special offers.

Summer tour dates announced

After a long winter break, we are happy to announce our summer tour, "Harmony of Silence." We'll kickoff of the tour in late May, starting in Chicago. We're still finalizing a few things, so more shows will be added to the schedule over the next few weeks. We are excited to get back on the road and perform live again. And don't worry, we did some work over the break and have a few new songs for you guys. You'll love them and we'll have studio versions available for digital download in late summer 2017. Follow us on Facebook and Twitter for music and tour news.

about us

Evelyn, Alexa, Suze and Sarah met after being paired up for an English project during their junior year (2010) at Jefferson High School, just outside of Chicago. They started meeting after school to write and play music, viewing it more of a hobby than anything serious. By the end of their senior year, the girls decided they would give it a shot. Lizzie and Morgan joined the group after meeting at a local open mic night, bringing a darker sound with them.

The band originally posted its music on Soundcloud, but has since removed it. Some of their early work can be found on the album Beginnings, which can be purchased through the official store or iTunes. The band's name, chosen after a random Wikipedia search has always been the Order of the Swan.

Eve started taking violin and singing lessons when she was 8. She helps write the lyrics to most of the Order of the Swan's songs, but leaves the music composition to Lizzie and Sarah. One of her other passions is animal welfare. She spends most of her free time volunteering at animal shelters when she's not with the band or working on her marketing degree.

Back-up vocals/Guitar

Suze Harmon

Suze has been playing guitar since she was 10, an activity she started to bond more with her mother. Though she enjoys playing and singing, her real love is composition. As the lead composer for the group, she spends a lot of time figuring out how to best weave rock and classical music together in a way that is distinctly theirs.

Piano

Sarah comes from a very musically-inclined family. Jake Mendez, her brother who's a member of the metal group Black Knight, taught her how to play the drums; and her grandmother taught her the harp. Her unique skill set keeps her very busy with the band. Sarah thrives off the chaos of live performances, especially switching instruments mid-performance.

Bass

Morgan James

Born: 02/20/94
Hometown: Chicago, Illinois

Morgan picked up music a little later than her bandmates, not starting bass lessons until she was 13. However, her ability grew quickly and soon she was organizing playing sessions for whoever she could get to play with her. She is often called their unofficial manager, as Morgan continues to plan their practice sessions and shows.
